

Nashua Chantal appeared in a Columbus courthouse on January 9 for his arraignment on charges of federal trespass, stemming from his nonviolent actions at Fort Benning on November 18, 2012. After entering a plea of not guilty, prosecutor Capitan West and Judge Stephen Hyles scheduled a trial date for March 13. Nashua is doing well and ready to put the SOA on trial! Please keep him in your thoughts as he faces 6 months in federal prison for his actions. Check here for more information on SOA Watch Prisoners of Conscience .
